ALMA MATER

*Oh, Alma Mater, now to thee we sing,
The song we sing is true
Our school days fondest memories always bring.
And so we sing to you.*

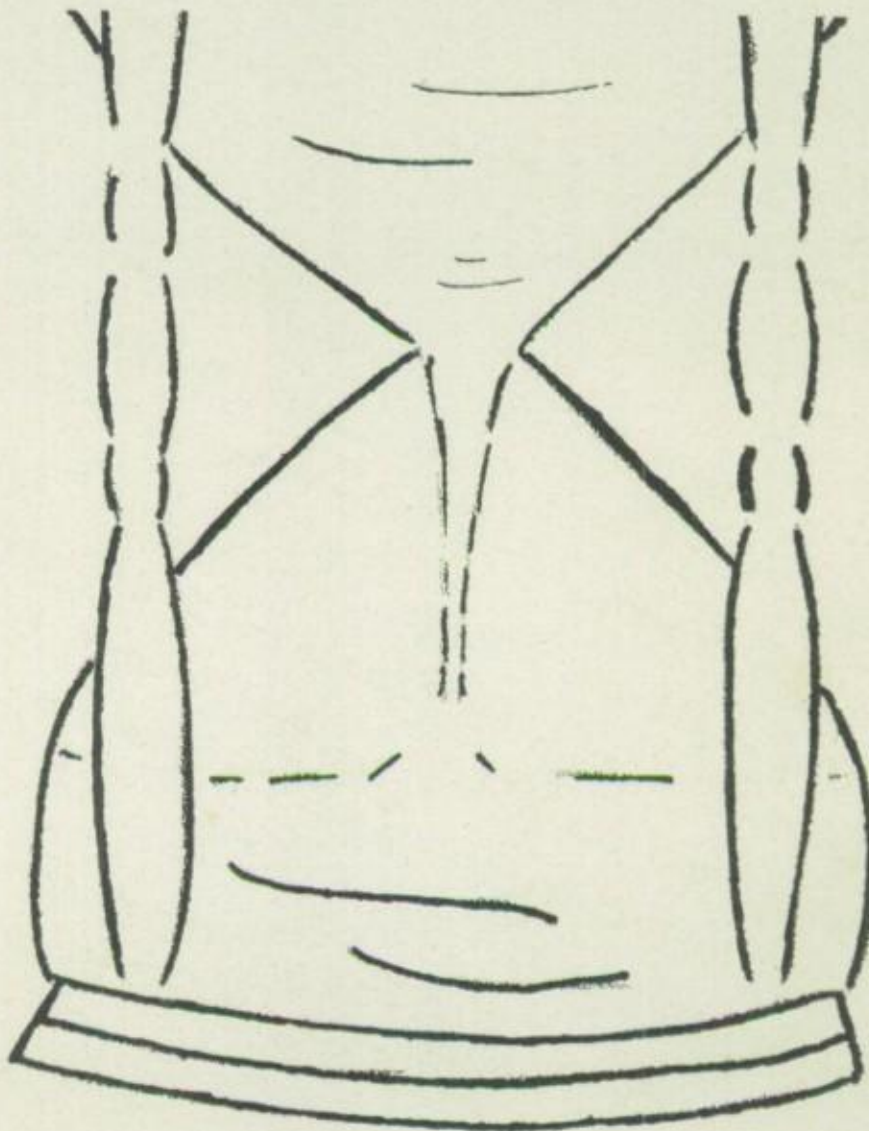

*The days may come and go,
Our thoughts we always know
Will go back to the days we loved the best,
Our days at L. H. S.*

LAFAYETTE HIGH SCHOOL
LAFAYETTE, LOUISIANA

Foreword

As the Sands of Time run their course, may this Annual of 1953 recall pleasant memories of days at Lafayette High.

The Annual Staff

Dedication

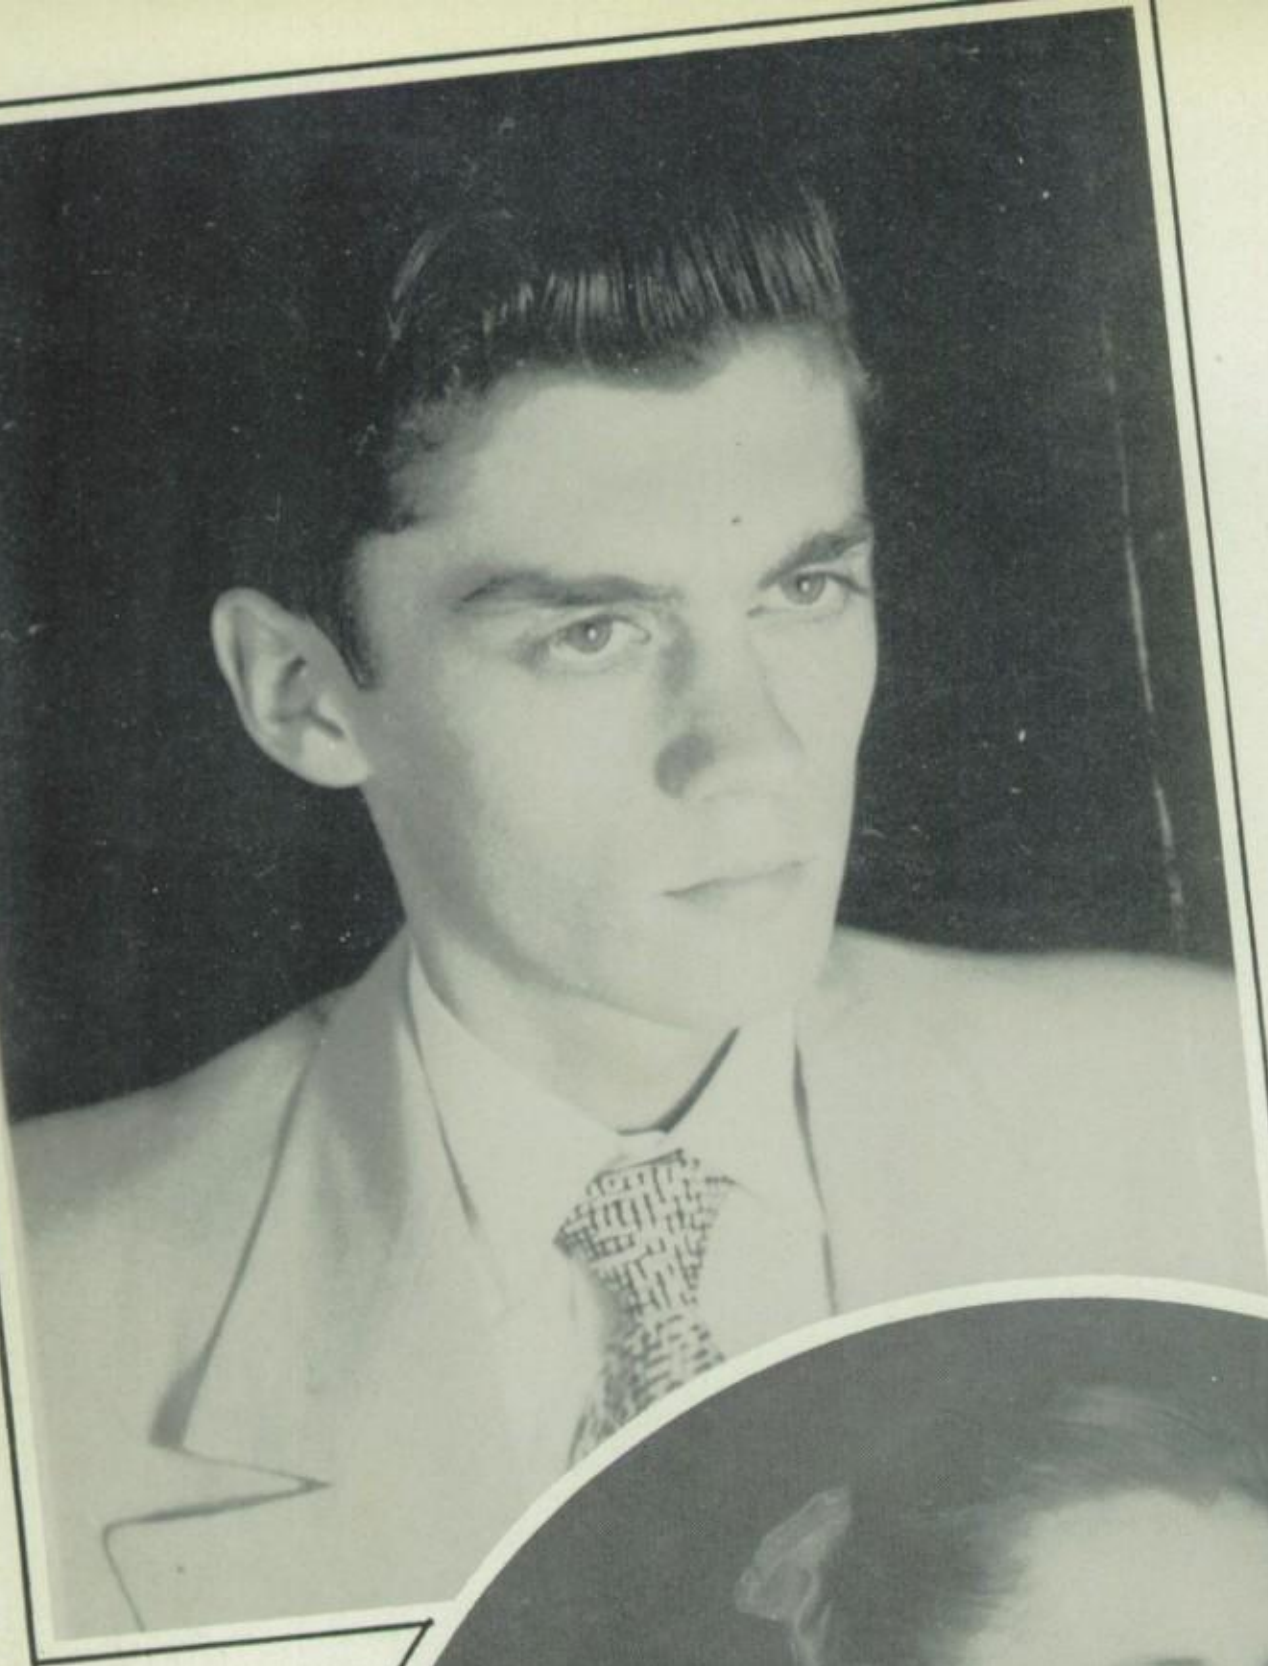

To the Seniors, June 1953 marked the end of high school careers. To Miss Regina Poche, it marked the end of a seventeen year stay at the Lafayette High School, and a retirement from the teaching profession.

To a teacher who has instructed, encouraged, and led us, who has inspired us to find our better selves and at the same time been one of us, it is exceedingly difficult to say goodbye. For her willingness to understand, to laugh, to give freely of her time and of herself, we are extremely grateful.

It is with sincere respect, love and gratitude that are so rightfully hers, that we dedicate this 1953 LION'S DIN to . . . MISS REGINA POCHE.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I rejoice with your teachers at the successful completion of your long course of studies at Lafayette High and join with them in extending to you heartiest congratulations and a hope that you will, at all times, be mindful of the lessons that they taught you by word and example during the happy years that you spent under their care and direction.

Sincerely yours,

L. A. Bergen

THE SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

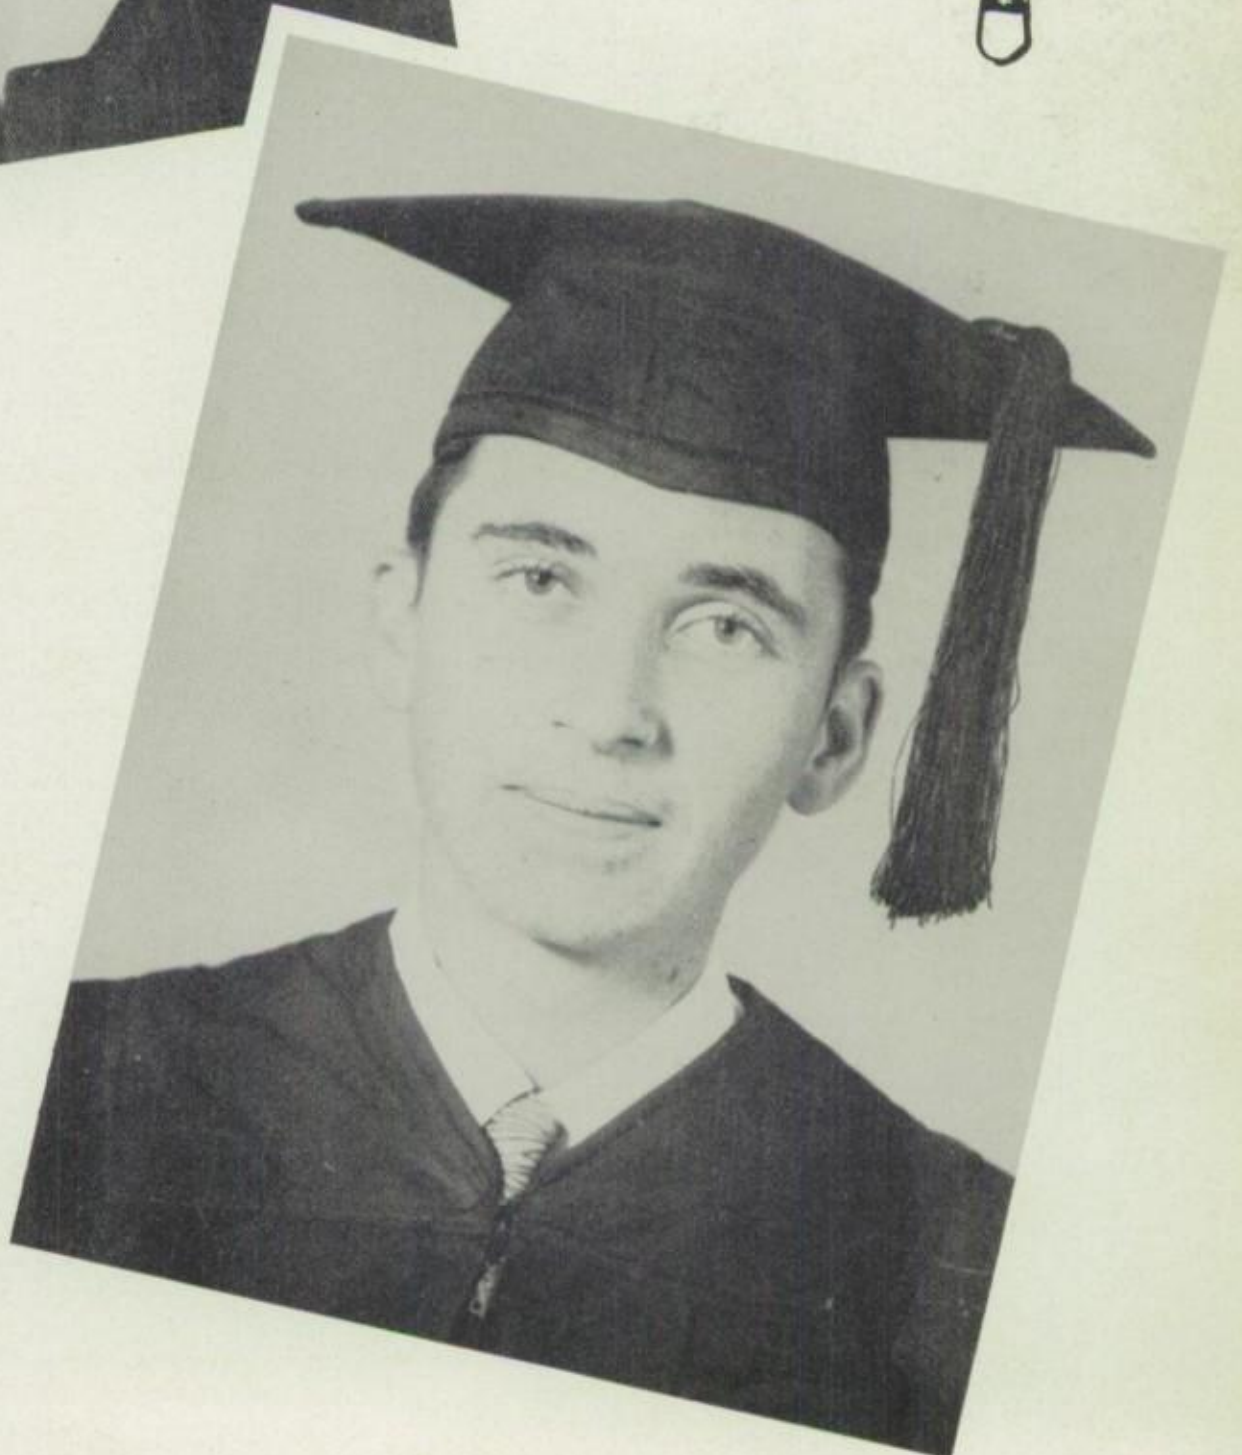

Seated at the wheel of the Class of '53 is Jack Patin, President. He is assisted in steering the class by the other officers: Ann Baggett, Second Vice President, and W. K. Rainbolt, Treasurer, check the motor. The First Vice President, Robert McKnight, makes sure everything holds together. Sally Long, Reporter, and Betty Heard, Secretary, help to give it a shove. With such a group steering the Class, it is no wonder that the Seniors of 1953 enjoyed a wonderful ride from September to June!

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

1952-53 was a busy year for the Juniors. The main project of the year was the Junior Style Show. The biggest social event was the Junior-Senior Prom held on May 22 in the school gymnasium. Its theme was "An Evening in Paris." At the "L" Club Show it was this class who won the trophy!

Heading this class are the officers shown above: Johnny Torian, President; Jimmy Hebert, Vice President; Roylyn Schaeffler, Secretary; Johnny Latiolais, Treasurer; and Rose Brechtel, Reporter.

Miss Lurnice Begnaud and Miss Ellen Campbell sponsored the class.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Maxine McBride
President

At Christmas time the Dramatic Club presented "Pop Reads the Christmas Carol." Starring in the production were Platt Lanphier, Sally Melanson, Ed Fitzgerald, Pauline Harding, Tommy Mitchell, Robert Theriot, and Alix de Gravelle.

The Dramatic Club membership is open to any interested student at Lafayette High. It's purpose is to give the students an opportunity to participate in dramatic work—both characterization and back-stage work.

Officers are: Maxine McBride, President; Bobby Wiltz, Vice President; Alix de Gravelles, Secretary; Jerry Gilbert, Treasurer; and Merle Whitman, Reporter. Miss Alix de Gravelle was selected to represent the Dramatic Club as its candidate for Miss Merry Christmas 1952-53.

MAKES HONORS FBLA MEET

Lafayette High students took part at the FBLA convention at Louisiana Tech in Ruston, La. The students, together with a group of boys and girls from Carenbro High School, traveled on a chartered bus.

The chapter amassed 14 trophies and lost the Gladys Peck trophy to Natchitoches by a narrow point.

Lafayette High placed in 3 of 5 contests entered including 1st place in Mr. Office Manuscript contests and 2nd in the scrapbook contest. Margaret Harris, Mr. Office, was awarded a gold pin and our chapter received a trophy for the song. The song was a very successful one for Nancy Lee.

She was a member of the Convent during the year the Loving Cup was awarded to the Lafayette Department. She is interested in our scrapbook which are on display in the Commerce Department.

Did you notice all the socks? Sophomores Friday? They were merely advertising their Soc Hop, held that night.

Gaily decorated with socks of all kinds, sizes and colors from florescent baby socks to conservative "Paul Bunyon" foot type, the gymnasium was the scene of a "Bargain Day" at one of the most hosiery counters.

Shoeless students entered the dance through white swan doors with large socks and words "Soc Hop" painted on the top. The top of the gymnasium was centered with a large sock everyone participated in the scramble when it ripped out. Hundreds of little balloons were sold as souvenirs. Small wooden and socks were sold as souvenirs. "Loud" and Queen rulers of the are chosen from de.

THE CHORUS

The Lafayette High School Chorus is one of the most active groups at the High School. Among the many events in which they participated were: All State Chorus held in Baton Rouge on November 22 through November 26; the Lion's Club Minstrel held in November; the Superintendent's Meeting in November. Repeatedly the Chorus was called upon to sing at various civic club meetings. High point of the year was the Chorus tour of South Louisiana. Among the cities in which the Chorus performed were Kaplan, Erath, Sunset, Morgan City, Franklin and in New Orleans. While in New Orleans the Chorus was televised over WDSU-TV.

The Chorus is under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Bowen. The following students were in the Chorus that toured South Louisiana:
